

‘LIFE IS NOT ABOUT WAITING FOR THE STORM TO PASS...
IT’S ABOUT LEARNING TO DANCE IN THE RAIN!’

How this quote makes me feel.

This quote makes me feel that you will have challenges in life, but you shouldn't give up. Then persevere to accept things that might not be the greatest, but you just have to keep going.

The phrases that stand out to me are 'not waiting and 'dance in the rain' because they remind you that you shouldn't have to wait for something to get better, and you should just go through with things that you desire to do. The phrase 'dance in the rain' also stands out to me because it shows that you can find happiness in any situation.

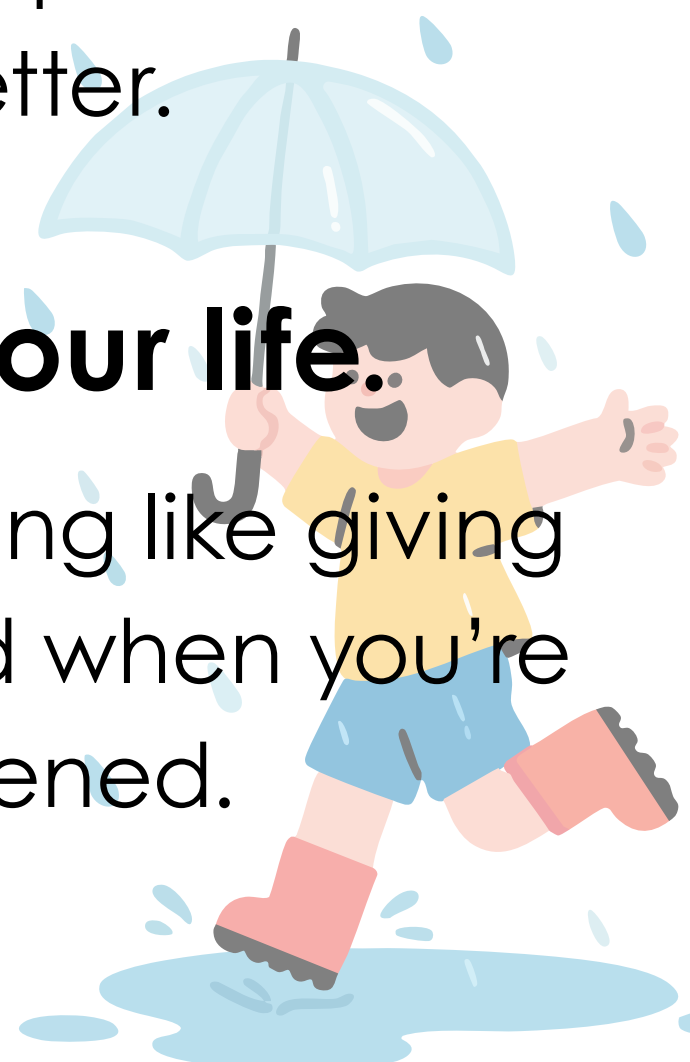

What this quote means to me.

To me this quote means that I can see the good in any situation and that sometimes you just can't give up and you just have to keep trying to make things better.

When can you implement this quote in your life.

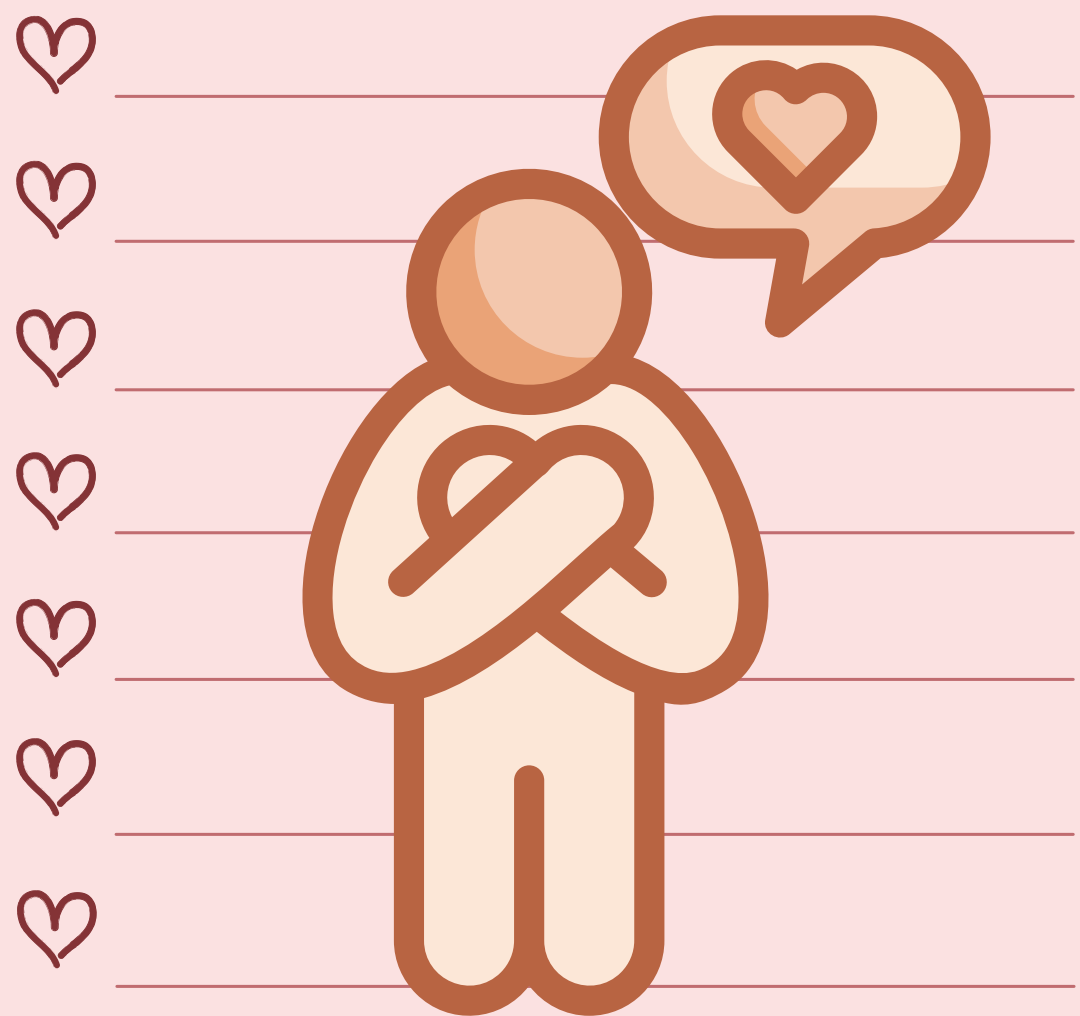

You can use this message in your life when you're feeling like giving up in something but it will push you to keep going and when you're learning to accept the things that have happened.
